WORK SCHEDULES

Our business is event production and management. We schedule employees in relation to events booked at the Rose Quarter facilities and property, in both the Moda Center and Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Your schedule will be based on the needs of the business, your availability and the events scheduled at the Rose Quarter. As a result we cannot guarantee the number of hours you will be scheduled to work, or provide a “regular” work schedule.

Final offers of employment will be conditioned on a successful drug screening and an individualized assessment of background check results after a conditional offer is made.

As a member of this team you assume the role of campus facilitator, communicator, decision-maker and promoter of positive experiences. This position is responsible for ensuring all customers - internal and external - enjoy a safe atmosphere where we create extraordinary moments.

Our employees are committed to creating extraordinary moments and generations of passionate fans for events @ the Rose Quarter.
